Visit Stoke Park

Visit the English countryside, stay at the enchanting Stoke Park and enjoy 5 star service. Spend some wonderful days in Buckinghamshire and take part in Stoke Park's fantastic range of exercise and recreation, good food and beautiful views. Golf, spa, gym and tennis are offered as activities.

The surroundings and the estate date back as far as 900 years and Stoke Park, England's first Country Club, was founded in 1908. A 35-minute drive from London and a 7 miles journey from London Heathrow will take you to this green, relaxing oasis.

And on top of everything, you can play golf in 007's footsteps. The golf match in the movie Goldfinger (1964) was recorded at Stoke Park. One of the most famous golf scene in the film world, Sean Connery as James Bond and Gert Fröbe in the role of Auric Goldfinger.
