Monza Autodromo Nazionale Monza

The parkland setting just north of Milan provides a unique experience for race day. Monza circuit is special, it's one of the original three f1 Circuits with tight chicanes and recently the fastest lap record.

With easy access by arranged shuttle transfer you can enjoy a perfect city break with great food, shopping and F1.

Monaco

Circuit De Monaco

This iconic race has been a permanent part of the F1 schedule since 1955, it is considered to be one of the most glamorous, set on the French Riviera overlooking the famous Harbor. The race is driven on the Narrow streets of Monaco meaning there is lots of excitement at every turn.

As the race is usually held at the end of May it is almost guaranteed to be great weather which will make for a perfect long weekend trip.

Abu Dhabi

Yas Marina Circuit

The Yas Marina Circuit is illuminated as the race takes you from day to night around the super yachts and 5 star W Hotel. In 2009 it was added to the race schedule and is held as one of the biggest events in the UAE calendar.

After race concerts allows complimentary access to watch award winning artists perform.

You can stay in Abu Dhabi or Dubai which is located approximately 1 hour away allowing you combine the perfect stay with your race weekend.

Barcelona

Circuit de Barcelona-Catalunya

The Circuit de Barcelona-Catalunya is Spain's absolute center for Formula One and it is also here that many F1 stables test their cars for the coming season. The Barcelona F1 course is very varied and challenging with both small and narrow curves as longer and more elongated. Of course, the track also contains a pair of straight stretches where it is possible to get up at really high speeds.

If you are in Barcelona or the surrounding area, the Spanish Grand Prix, which is run on the Circuit de Barcelona-Catalunya, is run in the spring (mid-May), of course the optimal destination if you are considering going on an F1 trip!
