150TH The Open St Andrews

The likes of Willie Park Snr and Old Tom Morris could never have imagined what The Open would become when they played in the 1st Championship at Prestwick in 1860, with a field of just 8 players.

Now, 162 years, and 149 Opens later the home of golf will host The 150th Open at the Old Course, St Andrews. On what is sure to be a historic Open with record crowds, the world's greatest players will descend on Fife to try and capture the Claret Jug.

The Home of Golf, the home of great Champions. The 150th Open will be played on the historic links of The Old Course for the 30th time.

The Open

The Open Championship, often referred to as The Open, is the oldest of golf tournament in the world and one of the most prestigious. The tournament was founded in 1860 and was originally held at Prestwick Golf Club in Scotland, before evolving to rotate around a number of golf courses, always located on the coast. The competition is organized by The R&A, which has also appointed GO Sport Travel as their Scandinavian Authorized Hospitality Provider.

The Open is one of four "Major's", with the others being the Masters Tournament, The PGA Championship and the US Open. Since 2019 The Open has been the last Major tournament of the year, and is played in mid-July. The competition is called "The Open" as it is open to both professional and amateur golfers. The best amateur players in the world can play The Open by invitation or qualification only.
